OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

THE NEWS

The gallant little Green Mountain State sends her compliments to the peace sneaks of the North in the shape of 22,000 majority for the Union ticket. Vermont indignantly denies the cowardly lie contained in the second resolution adopted at Chicago, "that it is the sense of the American people" that the war has been a failure and hostilities ought to cease. The Green Mountain boys respectfully ask to be counted out.

Robert E. Fenton was nominated yesterday, by the Union men of New York, as their candidate for Congress. He has been a member of Congress for the last eight or ten years, and is a man of irreproachable character and conceded ability.

Secretary Stanton's official bulletin states that it is supposed to be Sherman's design to give his army rest, and restore his railroad communication. They certainly need it after four month's vigorous campaigning and having fought ten pitched battles.

Stanton says the draft must proceed at once, or as soon as things can be got ready.

We have Hood's official dispatch giving a brief and surly statement of his defeat. He guesses as to the losses of the Union forces, but gives us no information as to his own. He was evidently in a bad humor when he wrote the dispatch.

The Herald's dispatches give what is reported to be a conversation of the President's, relative to an armistice, which is probably bogus.

The copperheads of this Congressional district are in travail to-day at Watertown. George B. Smith of Madison, expects to get the nomination for Congress. George passed through here to-day on his way thither. We trust he may get it.

Butler's canal at Dutch Gap is nearly completed, and as a means of improving navigation is to be a great success, commerce being thereby forever to be facilitated, but as a military expedient its usefullness is very problematical.

The pirate Florida went into port at Teneriffe on the 4th of August.

The situation at Berryville in the Shenandoah, remains as yet unchanged, but everything is in readiness for a great battle, which is by some, expected to be at hand. All superfluous material, trains, etc., have been sent to the rear.

The French have again been defeated in Mexico, and Cortinas is marching to defend Matamoras from the advancing French.

Col. Cobb Renominated.

The re-nomination of Colonel Amasa Cobb yesterday by acclamation, as the candidate of the Union men of the third Congressional District, was a well-deserved compliment to an honest and faithful public servant. He has just accepted the Colonelcy of the 43d regiment and will enter upon the discharge of the duties pertaining to that position immediately, leaving to the good people of his district the labor of the political canvass. As the military campaign will have practically closed before the meeting of Congress in December, this new regiment will have the benefit of an able and experienced officer at a period when practical skill and experience will be of great advantage to it.

We hear it rumored that Hon. M. M. Cothern, late circuit Judge of that circuit, is to be the nominee of the peace sneaks of that district; but as the district has the comfortable little Union majority of 3,000 in it, we cannot see as it makes any difference who they nominate.

The District comprises the counties of Green, Lafayette, Iowa, Grant, Crawford, Sauk, Richland and Vernon.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Two robbers, probably Southern rebels, entered the house of Henry Dow, near Providence, Clark county, Indiana, the other night, and demanded his money. He denied having any, but was told that he had both gold and greenbacks, and must give it up. He still denied, whereupon they took him out and hung him till nearly dead, when he told them where his money was. They obtained $500 in gold, $200 in silver and $800 in greenbacks. A discharged soldier sleeping up stairs and coming down, they robbed him of $150, when they left.

SAYS the Fishkill Journal: "We have lately learned a fact which is new to us, and probably will be to most of our readers. The sword which Gen. Washington carried through the Revolution was made in this village, at a shop which then stood near what is now the residence of Charles G. Rogers. The venerable weapon is now in the Patent Office at Washington, and still bears the imprint of the maker's name, in these words: 'J. BAILEY, FISHKILL.'

THE NEW YORK Tribune says: "There were at least one thousand more Lincoln voters in this city on the day after the Chicago Democratic platform had been read, than there were the day before. A friend dropped into a store where sat five partners, all Democrats, of whom not one would vote for McClellan or any one else on that platform."

A CORRESPONDENT, from Mobile bay, writes that all the men, women and children he saw around the bay, were barefooted. They did not seem to possess boots, shoes or stockings.

THE Friends' Intelligencer, a Quaker paper hitherto published at Philadelphia, has been discontinued, owing to the high price of paper.

STATE NEWS.

The Platteville Witness says that Mrs. Mary Coonrod, wife of Wm. Coonrod, of Big Patch, committed suicide on the afternoon of Thursday, the 25th ult., by cutting her throat with a razor. She had been slightly deranged and low spirited for some time previous.——The Madison Journal takes pleasure in announcing, from the best of authority, that trains will commence running regularly on the Madison division of the Northwestern railway, on Wednesday (to-morrow) Sept. 7th. This opens up, from this time, a new and more direct route to Chicago, a thing that has been anxiously desired for a long time by our people and those along the line. The Madison and Beloit road, as it has been called, is now complete.——The Appleton Motor states that the water in the river was never, in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, as low as at present. A good sized boy could now ford the river between the bridges. Every thing is again getting dry. Rain doesn't seem to affect the earth any more than the river. ——The Stevens Point Pinery states that Captain Van Myers has enlisted 80 men the past week.——The Hudson Star says the navigation of the river between Prescott and St. Paul is being improved by the building of wing dams. The dams are constructed by driving a line of stakes out into the river, against which willow and other brush is piled in sufficient quantity to turn the current.—These dams are, of course, but temporary—so built as to experiment. The effect of them has been to raise the water in the channel left open a few inches, and to make it much easier for boats to get over the bars.

DID YOU HEAR THE SLOGAN?—In his speech at Chicago recently, speaking of copperhead conventions, Long John Wentworth enquired:

When the news came that Sherman had moved to the southward of Atlanta, and that volunteers were rushing to Grant at the rate of a thousand a day, didn't you hear these men in their street assemblages and in their meetings in this square make the welkin ring with their cheers for Sherman and for Grant. [Cries of No, no.] Well, neither did I. [Loud laughter.] When they were sitting in their Convention, deliberating upon the choice of a candidate, and the news came over the electric wire, that glorious old Farragut had hoisted the stars and stripes over Fort Morgan, and the rebel flag had come down in humiliation, did you see that body of able, sagacious representative men rise in their seats and with uplifted hats and swelling voices make the "wigwam" ring! [cries of no, no,] and neither did I. [Uproarious laughter and cheers.]

COPPERHEAD IDEAS OF MCCLELLAN.—The Courrier des Etats Unis, a paper edited by an alien, in the service of the French Empire, sends up the following choice opinion of McClellan:

"McClellan is really a new man. For more than two years past he has not taken part in the inhuman war commenced by the Burnsides, the Hookers, and the Shermans. His name is not connected with any of those odious measures of the Administration; and the first great violation of the Constitution, the Emancipation Proclamation, made him sheathe his sword. Obliged to fight, he has, however, never sullied his name by any of those exterminating and savage expeditions which have dishonored Sherman, Kilpatrick and Butler. He belongs to that school of Generals who can yet look upon the Confederates as countrymen, while most of the Generals now in the service hardly look upon them as human beings."

WHY VALLANDIGHAM WAS NOT ARRESTED.—The Hon. Schuyler Colfax, late Speaker of the House of Representatives, made the following statement a few days ago, in a speech at Peru, Indiana:

"When Mr. Vallandigham returned it was very natural that the first place he went to should be a Democratic convention. He thought Mr. Lincoln would arrest him. Mr. Lincoln knew the fact that at that time there was a secret organization in the Northwest, the details of which he may not have been familiar with: but he knew the intention was to make Vallandigham's arrest the pretext for lighting the torch of civil war all over the Northwest. Anxious to preserve peace at your own homes, Mr. Lincoln passed over the return of Vallandigham."

DECLINATION OF HON. JAS. S. BROWN.—The News publishes the following note from Hon. Jas. S. Brown, the present representative in Congress from the First Congressional district.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 3, 1864.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I ascertain through letters and verbal communications from persons in various parts of this district that it is generally supposed that I shall be a candidate before the Democratic Congressional Convention, to be held on September 14th. Although I am deeply grateful for the confidence and kindness so universally shown, of my democratic friends, still I desire to state that for reasons of a personal nature, I am not a candidate for nomination.

Yours, &c., JAS. S. BROWN.

AT OLD PRICES.— If there are any of our subscribers who desire to receive the Banner at old prices, we will most cheerfully accommodate them, and they shall pay in produce on the same condition. For instance, we will send our paper at $2 per annum, or even $1,50 in advance, and take our pay in eggs at 8 cents, butter at 12½ cents, cheese ditto, oats 20 cents, potatoes 20 to 25 cents, corn 25 cents, wheat 60 cents, &c. We desire lots of subscribers on those terms.—Jackson County Banner.

A CONSISTENT peace man asks the Missouri Democrat why the democracy do not insist upon proposing an armistice to the Indians, to the end that the "whole controversy may be settled on terms alike honorable to both the Government and the redskins." "Plato, thou reasonest well."

A SUMMER CRUISE ON THE COAST OF NEW ENGLAND. By ROBERT CARTER. Boston: Crosby & Nichols.

This is a lively story of a Fishing Voyage along the coast of New England, in a little sloop, in 1858. It is pleasant summer reading, and is not without a certain scientific interest and value—especially to those who would know something of the inhabitants of the great deep. For sale by Sutherland.

WAYSIDE BLOSSOMS. By MARY H. C. BOOTH. Milwaukee: S. C. West.

This is a pleasant little volume of original poems and translations from the German, by the accomplished wife of S. M. Booth, editor of the Daily Life. The translations are mostly new, but the poems have been floating about in the newspapers for some time, and are all good. We perceive the grave and dignified literary critic of the New York Evening Post calls the author of this little volume a young lady, and persists in speaking of her as Miss Booth.

One of the best of the poems we copy below. It is entitled

THE VOLUNTEER'S VISION

Last night as I lay in the rain,
And looked up to heaven through the night,
A vision came o'er me, and lighted my brain
With a glory that never will flood it again
This side of the river of light.

And I heard a sweet sound as it came
Like the flutter of feathery wings,
And the voice of a seraph kept calling my name,
And her breath in my tresses went playing the same
As the air in an instrument's strings.

I told my wild heart to be still,
That the vision was naught but a dream;
For I knew not that over the amethyst hill
The feet of my darling had wandered at will,
On the banks of Eternity's stream

I said to the seraph-winged bird:
"Oh why have you come from the West?"
And she told how the leaves of the forest were stirred
By the feet of the angels who brought her the word
Of a land where the weary may rest.

She said she was weary and faint,
And her heart was all covered with snow;
The angels they heard her unuttered complaint,
They called her and brought her the robes of a saint,
And she said she was ready to go.

I told her the blossoms were sweet
In the meadows, the same as of yore;
But she showed me the dew on her sparkling feet,
They had caught of the lillies that bordered the street
By the sands of the Paradise shore.

I asked her how long I must wait
Before I should meet her afar;
And I prayed her unfold me the book of my fate—
But she vanished away through the crystaline gate
She had left in her coming afar.

Dear Hugh, there's a battle to day,
And perchance I may happen to fall;
If I am not at the call of the roll, you may say
A good bye to the boys in my name; for I may
Have said "Aye" to an angel's call.

Democratic Consistency.

The Democrats denounce Mr. Lincoln for fighting in a war which members of their own party—Jeff. Davis, John B. Floyd & Co., with the help of James Buchanan—commenced.

After denouncing Mr. Lincoln for prosecuting the war at all, they next denounce him for not having prosecuted it more vigorously and successfully.

They denounce Mr. Lincoln for the "delay" with which the war has proceeded, while their own candidate for President, McClellan, "the unready," is more responsible for that delay than any body else.

They denounce Mr. Lincoln for permitting "arbitrary arrests," and have nominated a man who wanted a whole legislature arrested.

They say they desire peace, and yet complain of Mr. Lincoln because he won't let them have all the arms they want.

They say they are opposed to the draft, and yet hurrah for a man who has urged a draft more strongly than any body else.

They abuse Mr. Lincoln, because as President through the will of the people, he prosecutes the war in execution of his official oath, and at the same time say they will vote for a man as Mr. Lincoln's successor, who helped to prosecute the war, under Mr. Lincoln, as a volunteer.

They say they are opposed to the war, and yet support a candidate whose only recommendation is that he has helped to conduct it.

They claim to be loyal, and yet while denouncing Mr. Lincoln, have nothing to say against Jeff. Davis.—St. Louis Democrat.

"WHEN THE city of Thebes, sent an army against the tyrant of Pherræ, the Thebans very unjustly would not assign the command to the great Epaminondas, who had gained many important battles for them, and had been again and again their commander-in-chief. What did Epaminondas do when the three-starred shoulder was denied him? Did he grumble? We do not known, but what we do know is that he volunteered as a common grenadier, marched and fought for his country, and returned to fight as commander many more and glorious battles. Field-Marshal Epaminondas did not talk about military etiquette; at least Plutarch does not say that he did; he only tells us the glorious fact that Epaminondas shouldered the musket when the Marshal's baton was refused him, thinking no doubt, that Thebes was not made for Epaminondas, but Epaminondas for Thebes."—Prof. Mahan.

SUMMER.—The fine rain of the past two days has given place to weather of the temperature of summer. Full feed for stock will be immensely benefitted by such a happy blending of sun and shower.

A PYROTECHNIC DISPLAY.—By reference to our advertising column, it will be seen that during our State Fair here we are to have a grand pyrotechnic display, which will exceed anything of the kind ever witnessed in this part of the country.

OUR QUOTA FULL.—We learn from the Provost Marshal that the quota of Rock county, in the aggregate, is already more than full, although there may be two or three towns which are still lacking a few men. As no delinquent sub-district is benefitted by the overplus of any other, it will be the part of wisdom for any such to see to it that there is no deficiency in the number required of them, as they will certainly have to stand the draft if they do not fill up.

More about Mr. Sanborn.

CLINTON ROCK CO., WIS., Sept. 7, 1864.

Editors of the Gazette.—The gentleman Sanborn, which you spoke of in your paper of last week, tried to leave this place at the time of the "small hours" last Monday morning, but as he was taking off some of our would-be soldiers he was detained by Constable Baesler. On Monday he was seen in company with one of our young ladies driving south, towards Dixie or Belvidere. The lady returned in good time without the musician and it is safe to say that even the high has landed in "Yarmount."

The would-be soldiers were taken to Delavan, I understand, by one of our Grain buyers—as the crops were poor this year he was driven to this, being a man of business (unfriendly believe).

Well, if the boys go into the army all right, as the town of Clinton is supposed to be over-full on all calls. The last call was nearly one third filled by individuals. O. Crosby, E. B. Kendall, E. W. Dutcher, F. Oleson, L. M. Hammond, and C. S. & W. I. Hutchorn having furnished substitutes. Yours for the cause,

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WAR DEPARTMENT WASHINGTON, Sept. 7, 10.30 P. M.—To Maj. Gen. Dix:—This department is still without any dispatches from the south of Nashville. It is supposed to be Sherman's design to withdraw his advance column, to give his army rest in Atlanta, and establish himself securely there, and restore his railroad communications, broken by Wheeler and Forrest, before making further advance.

No operations by the armies of Gen. Grant or Gen. Sheridan are reported today. The Provost Marshal General's office is busily employed in arranging the credits of the several districts and ordered to draft without delay for the deficiency in the districts that have not filled their quota, beginning with those most in arrears. Credits for volunteers will be allowed as long as possible, but the advantage of filling the armies immediately, requires the draft to be made in the defaulting districts. All application for the postponement have therefore been refused.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Herald's Washington special says the President in a recent conversation with a Republican said that an armistice once arranged for and granted from a government to rebels, has never resulted otherwise than in a final acknowledgement of independence to the rebels. An armistice, granted to the rebels would be an indirect agreement to, at some future time, acknowledge their independence.

In regard to the draft he stated that in the first 9 days after the call was made the average number of recruits received throughout the whole country was about 2000 per day; in the ensuing 9 days the number increased to 3000. The whole number during the 30 days is 50,000, and the number is steadily increasing. "We must," he said, "do what we can to encourage this. We shall probably let the draft delay along, enforcing it in a few localities where they do not show sufficient energy in recruiting, but doing all we can to encourage those localities that get recruits with celerity."

It had been decided to rescind the order prohibiting exportation of arms, and necessary orders would be issued in a few days.

Mr. Lincoln said he and Secretary Fessenden had many anxious discussions as to permitting and encouraging trade in cotton and he thought this was what they would decide upon, viz. Perfectly free trade in cotton by individuals who pay for it in greenbacks. The army and navy to be directed to protect and encourage trade so far as conducted within our lines, the only condition being that all cotton should be shipped to or through New York, there to be inspected and pay taxes on internal revenue.

WASHINGTON, September 7.—The sentences of the court martial in cases of one Colonel, one Lt. Colonel, four Majors, twenty-nine Captains, thirty 1st Lieutenants, twenty-one 2nd Lieutenants, and two surgeons, are officially promulgated. They were convicted among other things of drunkenness, shamefully abandoning their positions in front of the enemy, inducing others to run away, stealing, lying, false musters, drinking stimulants intended for the use of the sick, encouraging soldiers to plunder and pillage private citizens, embezzling, drinking and playing cards with enlisted men, reproachful and provoking speeches to soldiers, opprobrious language, &c.

FROM THE SOUTH.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The following is Hood's account of how he was whipped:

HEADQUARTERS, Sept. 3.—On the evening of the 30th of August the enemy made a lodgment across Flint river near Jonesboro where we attacked them on the evening of the 30th with two corps, but failed to dislodge them. This made it necessary to abandon Atlanta, which was done on the night of the 1st of Sept. Our loss on the evening of the 31st was small. On the evening of the 1st of September Gen. Hardee's corps in position at Jonesboro was assaulted by a superior force of the enemy and being outflanked was compelled to withdraw during the night with a loss of eight guns. The enemy's prisoners report their loss very severe.

J. B. HOOD, Maj. Gen.

FROM THE GULF.

WASHINGTON, September 7.—An officer of Farragut's fleet, writing to a friend here, says the ram Tennessee made a first rate fight, and could have got away from our force and under the guns of the fort, had her smoke stack not gone overboard. Not a shot went through her. The capture of this ram is without doubt a great blow to the secesh in this part of the world, where the rebels believed in her as much as the army of Richmond does in Lee.

Assistant Surgeon Gen. Wm. Ellis, U. S. Volunteers, of Winchester, Va., and formerly of Bombay, East India, is missing, notwithstanding the efforts of the Adjutant General to find him. The supply steamer Union will sail from New York on the 15th inst., for the Gulf Squadron.

FT. MONROE, Sept. 6.—The supply steamer Bermuda arrived this morning from Pensacola the 30th ult. The second day after the surrender of Ft. Morgan a torpedo accidently exploded on the beach, killing 5 and wounding 5 men of the Seminole, and also killing 2 of Gen. Granger's men, wounding 1 of the Metacomet's crew and the pilot of the Hartford. The rebel Admiral Buchannan was doing well and wont lose his leg.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The steamer Arvil has arrived from New Orleans. Nothing later from Mobile. Capt. Jewett of the Metacomet had exploded a torpedo on the sunken Nashville partially blowing her to pieces. He expected to soon finish her.

The Era says it has public, important intelligence but does not print it being contraband.

Matamoras papers state that a French force of marines had taken possession of Bagdad at the mouth of the Rio Grande, and it is reported that a force of 1,500 landed further up the river, where it is said Cortenas would attack them.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 7.—The Convention organized by electing Capt. E. Evans, of Waukesha, chairman, H. H. West, of Milwaukee, and Henry E. Fuller, of Racine, Secretaries.

An informal ballot was taken for Congressman, which resulted as follows: H. E. Paine, 23; O. H. Waldo 21; C. C. Sholes 4; Matt. H. Carpenter 6.

A formal ballot was then taken with the following result: H. E. Paine 29; O. H. Waldo 25.

On motion of Jason Downer, the nomination of Gen. Paine was made unanimous. The convention then adjourned to 7:30 in the evening, to hear the report of the committee on resolutions.

BARABOO, Wis., 8.—At the Republican Union Convention for the 3d Congressional District, held here to-day, Hon. Amasa Cobb was unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, Sept. 8.—A report reached Memphis last Sunday that the gunboats Hastings and Naumkeag were captured below Clarenda on the White river, and Capt. Rogers of the latter was killed. It is also reported that another gunboat, name not given, was sunk, and that Duvall's Bluff was threatened by a considerable force of rebels. These reports are confirmed thro' rebel sources from Helena.

A cavalry force left Memphis a few days since for the White river, and an infantry force is understood to be embarking for Duvall Bluff.

The Little Rock Democrat contains the particulars of the recent raid on Duvall Bluff and Little Rock Railroad. A quantity of hay was burned and other property destroyed. Some damage was done to the Railroad.

A fight recently occurred at Redwood, 7 miles from Baton Rouge, in which 18 of the 2d La. cavalry were killed.

Gen. A. J. Smith and staff arrived here yesterday.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 7.—The gold market continues steady. The chief support of the market now is the unsettled short contracts, many of which were made during the early part of last week. The fluctuations were opening from 2,42¾ down to 2,41¼, and weak at that.

The Commercial's Washington special says the U. S. Treasurer will in 12 days have ready money enough to pay off every man in the U. S. service.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 7.—A dispatch has just been received by Ward Hunt from Gen. Dix, positively declining the nomination for Governor.

Reuben E. Fenton has been nominated for Governor by the Republican Convention.

THE PIRATE FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—A letter from Tenneriffe, dated August 14th, says the pirate steamer Florida arrived here yesterday. She was permitted to take coal and what provisions she required, and sailed at noon, going south. During her stay here she received none of the courtesies extended to vessels of war visiting this port. It is reported that she came here direct from the coast of New England where she took and destroyed many vessels, including a steamer with a very valuable cargo, which the pirate regrets they did not save. It is supposed this steamer was the Electric Spark. One of her officers and two of her crew left the Florida at Tenneriffe.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Times' special from Charlestown, Va., says the enemy show no disposition to offer battle since the general engagement of the 2d. On Monday Gen. Biergies' brigade of Granger's division, 19th corps, advanced to the Winchester and Berryville pike, when the enemy fell back almost without firing a shot. The 1st N. Y. dragoons, commanded by Smith, the same day went on a reconnoisance to the right, but met with no serious opposition. Our troops reached a point on the Winchester pike, where Early's headquarters had been three hours before. Earley's movements are involved somewhat in mystery.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

HONESDALE, PA., Sept. 7.—Judge Humbus' store in Salem, Wayne County, Pennsylvania, was entered on Tuesday night, the safe opened and its contents taken amounting to $6,000. A large number of individual notes were also stolen chiefly given by Salem men. The robbers took three $500 government bills, and from 15 to 20 $100 government bills, a number of $50 and $20 treasury interest paying bills, and $200 or more in silver. A liberal reward is offered for the delivery of the thief.

FROM VERMONT

BURLINGTON, Sept. 7.—Returns come in slow but indicate large Union gains. Smith's majority will come up nearly to 22,000, a gain of 5000 since last year. Mr. Woodbridge, Merrill and Baxter are all elected. The House will not contain over 20 Democrats.

CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES!

LIVER COMPLAINTS,

Diseases of Women!

And all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption,

Are treated by DR. HALE, at the Wisconsin Throat & Lung Institute,

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a specialty in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House, Dewitt Davis, N. G. Roniston, D. R. Stout, F. J. Tupper Ellis Doty, job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Chaney, Miss Hello Bluttuck, Miss N. Wiley.

The list could be extended to an indefinite length, but the above will suffice.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

THE NEWS

The gallant little Green Mountain State sends her compliments to the peace sneaks of the North in the shape of 22,000 majority for the Union ticket. Vermont indignantly denies the cowardly lie contained in the second resolution adopted at Chicago, "that it is the sense of the American people" that the war has been a failure and hostilities ought to cease. The Green Mountain boys respectfully ask to be counted out.

Robert E. Fenton was nominated yesterday, by the Union men of New York, as their candidate for Congress. He has been a member of Congress for the last eight or ten years, and is a man of irreproachable character and conceded ability.

Secretary Stanton's official bulletin states that it is supposed to be Sherman's design to give his army rest, and restore his railroad communication. They certainly need it after four month's vigorous campaiging and having fought ten pitched battles.

Stanton says the draft must proceed at once, or as soon as things can be got ready.

We have Hood's official dispatch giving a brief and surly statement of his defeat. He guesses as to the losses of the Union forces, but gives us no information as to his own. He was evidently in a bad humor when he wrote the dispatch.

The Herald's dispatches give what is reported to be a conversation of the President's, relative to an armistice, which is probably bogus.

The copperheads of this Congressional district are in travail to-day at Watertown. George B. Smith of Madison, expects to get the nomination for Congress. George passed through here to-day on his way thither. We trust he may get it.

Butler's canal at Dutch Gap is nearly completed, and is a means of improving navigation is to be a great success, commerce being thereby forever to be facilitated, but as a military expedient its usefullness is very problematical.

The pirate Florida went into port at Teneriffe on the 4th of August.

The situation at Berryville in the Shenandoah, remains as yet unchanged, but everything is in readiness for a great battle, which is by some, expected to be at hand. All superfluous material, trains, etc., have been sent to the rear.

The French have again been defeated in Mexico, and Cortinas is marching to defend Matamoras from the advancing French.

Col. Cobb Renominated.

The re-nomination of Colonel Amasa Cobb yesterday, by acclamation, as the candidate of the Union men of the third Congressional District, was a well-deserved compliment to an honest and faithful public servant. He has just accepted the Colonelcy of the 43d regiment and will enter upon the discharge of the duties pertaining to that position immediately, leaving to the good people of his district the labor of the political canvass. As the military campaign will have practically closed before the meeting of Congress in December, this new regiment will have the benefit of an able and experienced officer at a period when practical skill and experience will be of great advantage to it.

We hear it rumored that Hon. M. M. Cothern, late circuit Judge of that circuit, is to be the nominee of the peace sneaks of that district; but as the district has the comfortable little Union majority of 3,000 in it, we cannot see as it makes any difference who they nominate.

The District comprises the counties of Green, Lafayette, Iowa, Grant, Crawford, Sauk, Richland and Vernon.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Two robbers, probably Southern rebels, entered the house of Henry Dow, near Providence, Clark county, Indiana, the other night, and demanded his money. He denied having any, but was told that he had both gold and greenbacks, and must give it up. He still denied, whereupon they took him out and hung him till nearly dead, when he told them where his money was. They obtained $500 in gold, $200 in silver and $800 in greenbacks. A discharged soldier sleeping up stairs and coming down, they robbed him of $150, when they left.

SAYS the Fishkill Journal: "We have lately learned a fact which is new to us, and probably will be to most of our readers. The sword which Gen. Washington carried through the Revolution was made in this village, at a shop which then stood near what is now the residence of Charles C. Rogers. The venerable weapon is now in the Patent Office at Washington, and still bears the imprint of the maker's name, in these words: 'J. BAILEY, FISHKILL.'

THE NEW YORK Tribune says: "There were at least one thousand more Lincoln voters in this city on the day after the Chicago Democratic platform had been read, than there were the day before. A friend dropped into a store where sat five partners, all Democrats, of whom not one would vote for McClellan or any one else on that platform."

A CORRESPONDENT, from Mobile bay, writes that all the men, women and children he saw around the bay, were barefooted. They did not seem to possess boots, shoes or stockings.

THE Friends' Intelligencer, a Quaker paper hitherto published at Philadelphia, has been discontinued, owing to the high price of paper.

STATE NEWS.

The Platteville Witness says that Mrs. Mary Coonrod, wife of Wm. Coonrod, of Big Patch, committed suicide on the afternoon of Thursday, the 25th ult., by cutting her throat with a razor. She had been slightly deranged and low spirited for some time previous.——The Madison Journal takes pleasure in announcing, from the best of authority, that trains will commence running regularly on the Madison division of the Northwestern railway, on Wednesday (to-morrow) Sept. 7th. This opens up, from this time, a new and more direct route to Chicago, a thing that has been anxiously desired for a long time by our people and those along the line. The Madison and Beloit road, as it has been called, is now complete.——The Appleton Motor states that the water in the river was never, in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, as low as at present. A good sized boy could now ford the river between the bridges. Every thing is again getting dry. Rain doesn't seem to affect the earth any more than the river.——The Stevens Point Pinery states that Captain Van Myers has enlisted 80 men the past week.——The Hudson Star says the navigation of the river between Prescott and St. Paul is being improved by the building of wing dams. The dams are constructed by driving a line of stakes out into the river, against which willow and other brush is piled in sufficient quantity to turn the current.—These dams are, of course, but temporary—so built as to experiment. The effect of them has been to raise the water in the channel left open a few inches, and to make it much easier for boats to get over the bars.

DID YOU HEAR THE SLOGAN?—In his speech at Chicago recently, speaking of copperhead conventions, Long John Wentworth enquired:

When the news came that Sherman had moved to the southward of Atlanta, and that volunteers were rushing to Grant at the rate of a thousand a day, didn't you hear these men in their street assemblages and in their meetings in this square make the welkin ring with their cheers for Sherman and for Grant. [Cries of No, no.] Well, neither did I. [Loud laughter.] When they were sitting in their Convention, deliberating upon the choice of a candidate, and the news came over the electric wire, that glorious old Farragut had hoisted the stars and stripes over Fort Morgan, and the rebel flag had come down in humiliation, did you see that body of able, sagacious representative men rise in their seats and with uplifted hats and swelling voices make the "wigwam" ring! [cries of no, no,] and neither did I [Uproarious laughter and cheers.]

COPPERHEAD IDEAS OF MCCLELLAN.—The Courrier des Etats Unis, a paper edited by an alien, in the service of the French Empiro, sends up the following choice opinion of McClellan:

"McClellan is really a new man. For more than two years past he has not taken part in the inhuman war commenced by the Burnsides, the Hookers, and the Shermans. His name is not connected with any of those odious measures of the Administration; and the first great violation of the Constitution, the Emancipation Proclamation, made him sheathe his sword. Obliged to fight, he has, however, never sullied his name by any of those exterminating and savage expeditions which have dishonored Sherman, Kilpatrick and Butler. He belongs to that school of Generals who can yet look upon the Confederates as countrymen, while most of the Generals now in the service hardly look upon them as human beings."

WHY VALLANDIGHAM WAS NOT ARRESTED.—The Hon. Schuyler Colfax, late Speaker of the House of Representatives, made the following statement a few days ago, in a speech at Peru, Indiana:

"When Mr. Vallandigham returned it was very natural that the first place he went to should be a Democratic convention. He thought Mr. Lincoln would arrest him. Mr. Lincoln knew the fact that at that time there was a secret organization in the Northwest, the details of which he may not have been familiar with: but he knew the intention was to make Vallandigham's arrest the pretext for lighting the torch of civil war all over the Northwest. Anxious to preserve peace at your own homes, Mr. Lincoln passed over the return of Vallandigham."

DECLINATION OF HON. JAS. S. BROWN.—The News publishes the following note from Hon. Jas. S. Brown, the present representative in Congress from the First Congressional district.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 3, 1864.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I ascertain through letters and verbal communications from persons in various parts of this district that it is generally supposed that I shall be a candidate before the Democratic Congressional Convention, to be held on September 14th. Although I am deeply grateful for the confidence and kindness so universally shown, of my democratic friends, still I desire to state that for reasons of a personal nature, I am not a candidate for nomination.

Yours, &c., JAS. S. BROWN.

AT OLD PRICES.— If there are any of our subscribers who desire to receive the Banner at old prices, we will most cheerfully accommodate them, and they shall pay in produce on the same condition. For instance, we will send our paper at $2 per annum, or even $1,50 in advance, and take our pay in eggs at 8 cents, butter at 12½ cents, cheese ditto, oats 20 cents, potatoes 20 to 25 cents, corn 25 cents, wheat 60 cents, &c. We desire lots of subscribers on those terms.—Jackson County Banner.

A CONSISTENT peace man asks the Missouri Democrat why the democracy do not insist upon proposing an armistice to the Indians, to the end that the "whole controvercy may be settled on terms alike honorable to both the Government and the redskins." "Plato, thou reasonest well."

A SUMMER CRUISE ON THE COAST OF NEW ENGLAND. By Robert Carter. Boston: Crosby & Nichols.

This is a lively story of a Fishing Voyage along the coast of New England, in a little sloop, in 1858. It is a pleasant summer reading, and is not without a certain scientific interest and value—especially to those who would know something of the inhabitants of the great deep. For sale by Sutherland.

WAYSIDE BLOSSOMS. By MARY H. C. BOOTH. Milwaukee: S. C. West.

This is a pleasant little volume of original poems and translations from the German, by the accomplished wife of S. M. Booth, editor of the Daily Life. The translations are mostly new, but the poems have been floating about in the newspapers for some time, and are all good. We perceive the grave and dignified literary critic of the New York Evening Post calls the author of this little volume a young lady, and persists in speaking of her as Miss Booth.

One of the best of the poems we copy below. It is entitled

THE VOLUNTEER'S VISION.

Last night as I lay in the rain,
And looked up to heaven through the night,
A vision came o'er me, and lighted my brain
With a glory that never will flood it again
This side of the river of light.

And I heard a sweet sound as it came
Like the flutter of feathery wings,
And the voice of a seraph kept calling my name,
And her breath in my tresses went playing the same
As the air in an instrument's strings.

I told my wild heart to be still,
That the vision was naught but a dream;
For I knew not that over the amethyst hill
The feet of my darling had wandered at will,
On the banks of Eternity's stream.

I said to the seraph-winged bird:
"Oh why have you come from the West?"
And she told how the leaves of the forest were stirred
By the feet of the angels who brought her the word
Of a land where the weary may rest.

She said she was weary and faint,
And her heart was all covered with snow:
The angels they heard her unuttered complaint,
They called her and brought her the robes of a saint,
And she said she was ready to go.

I told her the blossoms were sweet
In the meadows, the same as of yore;
But she showed me the dew on her sparkling feet,
They had caught of the lillies that bordered the street
By the sands of the Paradise shore.

I asked her how long I must wait
Before I should meet her afar;
And I prayed her unfold me the book of my fate—
But she vanished away through the crystaling gate
She had left in her coming affair.

Dear Hugh, there's a battle to day,
And perchance I may happen to fall;
If I am not at the call of the roll, you may say
A good bye to the boys in my name; for I may
Have said "Aye" to an angel's call.

Democratic Consistency.

The Democrats denounce Mr. Lincoln for fighting in a war which members of their own party—Jeff. Davis, John B. Floyd & Co., with the help of James Buchanan—commenced.

After denouncing Mr. Lincoln for prosecuting the war at all, they next denounce him for not having prosecuted it more vigorously and successfully.

They denounce Mr. Lincoln for the "delay" with which the war has proceeded, while their own candidate for President, McClellan, "the unready," is more responsible for that delay than any body else.

They denounce Mr. Lincoln for permitting "arbitrary arrests," and have nominated a man who wanted a whole legislature arrested.

They say they desire peace, and yet complain of Mr. Lincoln because he won't let them have all the arms they want.

They say they are opposed to the draft, and yet hurrah for a man who has urged a draft more strongly than any body else.

They abuse Mr. Lincoln, because as President through the will of the people, he prosecutes the war in execution of his official oath; and at the same time say they will vote for a man as Mr. Lincoln's successor, who helped to prosecute the war, under Mr. Lincoln, as a volunteer.

They say they are opposed to the war, and yet support a candidate whose only recommendation is that he has helped to conduct it.

They claim to be loyal, and yet while denouncing Mr. Lincoln, have nothing to say against Jeff. Davis.—St. Louis Democrat.

"WHEN THE city of Thebes, sent an army against the tyrant of Pheræ, the Thebans very unjustly would not assign the command to the great Epaminondas, who had gained many important battles for them, and had been again and again their commander-in-chief. What did Epaminondas do when the three-starred shoulder was denied him? Did he grumble? We do not known, but what we do know is that he volunteered as a common grenadier, marched and fought for his country, and returned to fight as commander many more and glorious battles. Field-Marshal Epaminondas did not talk about military etiquette; at least Plutarch does not say that he did: he only tells us the glorious fact that Epaminondas shouldered the musket when the Marshal's baton was refused him, thinking no doubt, that Thebes was not made for Epaminondas, but Epaminondas for Thebes."—Prof. Mahan.

SUNSHINE.—The fine rain of the past two days has given place to weather of the temperature of summer. Fall feed for stock will be immensely benefitted by such a happy blending of sun and shower.

A PYROTECHNIC DISPLAY.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that during our State Fair here we are to have a grand pyrotechnic display, which will exceed anything of the kind ever witnessed in this part of the country.

OUR QUOTA FULL.—We learn from the Provost Marshal that the quota of Rock county, in the aggregate, is already more than full, although there may be two or three towns which are still lacking a few men. As no delinquent sub-district is benefitted by the overplus of any other, it will be the part of wisdom for any such to see to it that there is no deficiency in the number required of them, as they will certainly have to stand the draft if they do not fill up.

More about Mr. Sanborn.

CLINTON ROCK CO., WIS., Sept. 7, 1864.

Editors of the Gazette.—The gentleman Sanborn, which you spoke of in your paper of last week, tried to leave this place at the time of the "small hours" last Monday morning, but as he was taking off some of our would-be soldiers he was detained by constable Dassler. On Monday he was seen in company with one of our young ladies driving south, towards Dixie—or Belvidere. The lady returned in good time without the musician and it is safe to say that here this leaf has landed in Vermont.

The would-be soldiers were taken to Delevan, I understand, by one of our Grain buyers—as the crops were poor this year he was driven to this, being a man of business turn I firmly believe.

Well, if the boys go into the army all right, as the Town of Clinton is supposed to be over-full on all calls. The last call was nearly one third filled by individuals. O. Crosby, E. B. Kendall, E. W. Dutcher, F. Olsson, L. M. Hammond, and C. S. & W. J. Hartshorn having furnished substitutes.

Yours for the cause,
UNION.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY, DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to use Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors—it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Sept. 7, 10-30 P. M.—To Maj. Gen. Dix:—This department is still without any dispatches from the south of Nashville. It is supposed to be Sherman's design to withdraw his advance column, to give his army rest in Atlanta, and establish himself securely there, and restore his railroad communications broken by Wheeler and Forrest, before making further advance.

No operations by the armies of Gen. Grant or Gen. Sheridan are reported to-day. The Provost Marshal General's office is busily employed in arranging the credits of the several districts and is ordered to draft without delay for the deficiency in the districts that have not filled their quotas, beginning with those most in arrears. Credits for volunteers will be allowed as long as possible, but the advantage of filling the armies immediately, requires the draft to be made in the defaulting districts. All application for the postponements have therefore been refused.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Herald's Washington special says the President in a recent conversation with a Republican said that an armistice once arranged for and granted from a government to rebels, has never rested otherwise than in a final acknowledgement of independence to the rebels. An armistice, granted to the rebels would be an indirect agreement to, at some future time, acknowledge their independence.

In regard to the draft he stated that in the first 9 days after the call was made the average number of recruits received throughout the whole country was about 2000 per day; in the ensuing 9 days the number increased to 5000. The whole number during the 50 days is 50,000, and the number is steadily increasing. "We must," he said, "do what we can to encourage this. We shall probably let the draft delay along, enforcing it in a few localities where they do not show sufficient energy in recruiting, but doing all we can to encourage those localities that get recruits with celerity."

It had been decided to rescind the order prohibiting exportation of arms, and necessary orders would be issued in a few days.

Mr. Lincoln said he and Secretary Fessenden had many anxious discussions as to permitting and encouraging trade in cotton and he thought this was what they would decide upon, viz. Perfectly free trade in cotton by individuals who pay for it in greenbacks. The army and navy to be directed to protect and encourage trade so far as conducted within our lines, the only condition being that all cotton should be shipped to or through New York, there to be inspected and pay taxes on internal revenue.

WASHINGTON, September 7.—The sentences of the court martial in cases of one Colonel, one Lt. Colonel, four Majors, twenty-nine Captains, thirty 1st Lieutenants, twenty-one 2nd Lieutenants, and two surgeons, are officially promulgated. They were convicted among other things of drunkenness, shamefully abandoning their positions in front of the enemy, inducing others to run away, stealing, lying, false musters, drinking stimulants intended for the use of the sick, encouraging soldiers to plunder and pillage private citizens, embezzling, drinking and playing cards with enlisted men, reprehensible and provoking speeches to soldiers, opprobrious language, &c.

FROM THE SOUTH.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The following is Hood's account of how he was whipped:

HEADQUARTERS, Sept. 3.—On the evening of the 30th of August the enemy made a lodgment across Flint river near Jonesboro where we attacked them on the evening of the 30th with two corps but failed to dislodge them. This made it necessary to abandon Atlanta, which was done on the night of the 1st of Sept. Our loss on the evening of the 31st was small. On the evening of the 1st of September Gen. Hardee's corps in position at Jonesboro was assaulted by a superior force of the enemy and being outflanked was compelled to withdraw during the night with a loss of eight guns. The enemy's prisoners report their loss very severe.

J. B. HOOD, Maj. Gen.

FROM THE GULF.

WASHINGTON, September 7.—An officer of Farragut's fleet, writing to a friend here, says the ram Tennessee made a first rate fight, and could have got away from our force and under the guns of the fort, had her smoke stack not gone overboard. Not a shot went through her. The capture of this ram is without doubt a great blow to the secesh in this part of the world, where the rebels believed in her as much as the army of Richmond does in Lee.

Assistant Surgeon Gen. Wm. Ellis, U. S. Volunteers, of Winchester, Va., and formerly of Bombay, East India, is missing, notwithstanding the efforts of the Adjutant General to find him. The supply steamer Union will sail from New York on the 15th inst., for the Gulf Squadron.

FT. MONROE, Sept. 6.—The supply steamer Bermuda arrived this morning from Pensacola the 30th ult. The second day after the surrender of Ft. Morgan a torpedo accidently exploded on the beach, killing 5 and wounding 5 men of the Seminole, and also killing 2 of Gen. Granger's men, wounding 1 of the Metacomet's crew and the pilot of the Hartford. The rebel Admiral Buchannan was doing well and wont lose his leg.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The steamer Arvil has arrived from New Orleans. Nothing later from Mobile. Capt. Jewett of the Metacomet had exploded a torpedo on the sunken Nashville partially blowing her to pieces. He expected to soon finish her.

The Era says it has public, important intelligence but does not print it, being contraband.

Matamoras papers state that a French force of marines had taken possession of Bagdad at the mouth of the Rio Grande, and it is reported that a force of 1,500 landed further up the river, where it is said Cortenas would attack them.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 7.—The Convention organized by electing Capt. E. Evans, of Waukesha, chairman, H. H. West, of Milwaukee, and Henry E. Fuller, of Racine, Secretaries.

An informal ballot was taken for Congressman, which resulted as follows: H. E. Paine, 23; O. H. Waldo 21; C. C. Sheals 4; Matt. H. Carpenter 6.

A formal ballot was then taken with the following result: H. E. Paine 29; O. H. Waldo 25.

On motion of Jason Downer, the nomination of Gen. Paine was made unanimous. The convention then adjourned to 7:30 in the evening, to hear the report of the committee on resolutions.

BOSCOBEL, Wis., 8.—At the Republican Union Convention for the 3d Congressional District, held here to-day, Hon. Amasa Cobb was unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, Sept. 8.—A report reached Memphis last Sunday that the gunboats Hastings and Naumkeag were captured below Clarenda on the White river, and Capt. Rogers of the latter was killed. It is also reported that another gunboat, name not given, was sunk, and that Duvall's Bluff was threatened by a considerable force of rebels. These reports are confirmed thro' rebel sources from Helena.

A cavalry force left Memphis a few days since for the White river, and an infantry force is understood to be embarking for Duvall Bluff.

The Little Rock Democrat contains the particulars of the recent raid on Duvall Bluff and Little Rock Railroad. A quantity of hay was burned and other property destroyed. Some damage was done to the Railroad.

A fight recently occurred at Redwood, 7 miles from Baton Rouge, in which 18 of the 29th Ia. cavalry were killed.

Gen. A. J. Smith and staff arrived here yesterday.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 7.—The gold market continues steady. The chief support of the market now is the unsettled short contracts, many of which were made during the early part of last week. The fluctuations were opening from 2,42¾ down to 2,41¼ and weak at that.

The Commercial's Washington special says the U. S. Treasurer will in 12 days have ready money enough to pay off every man in the U. S. service.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 7.—A dispatch has just been received by Ward Hunt from Gen. Dix, positively declining the nomination for Governor.

Reuben E. Fenton has been nominated for Governor by the Republican Convention.

THE PIRATE FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—A letter from Tenneriffe, dated August 14th, says the pirate steamer Florida arrived here yesterday. She was permitted to take coal and what provisions she required, and sailed at noon, going south. During her stay here she received none of the courtesies extended to vessels of war visiting this port. It is reported that she came here direct from the coast of New England where she took and destroyed many vessels, including a steamer with a very valuable cargo, which the pirate regrets they did not save. It is supposed this steamer was the Electric Spark. One of her officers and two of her crew left the Florida at Tenneriffe.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Times' special from Charlestown, Va., says the enemy show no disposition to offer battle since the general engagement of the 2d. On Monday Gen. Biergies' brigade of Grange's division, 19th corps, advanced to the Winchester and Berryville pike, when the enemy fell back almost without firing a shot. The 1st N. Y. dragoons, commanded by Smith, the same day went on a reconnoisance to the right, but met with no serious opposition. Our troops reached a point on the Winchester pike, where Early's headquarters had been three hours before. Earley's movements are involved somewhat in mystery.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

HORNSDALE, PA., Sept. 7.—Judge Humbus' store in Salem, Wayne County, Pennsylvania, was entered on Tuesday night, the safe opened and its contents taken amounting to $6,000. A large number of individual notes were also stolen chiefly given by Salem men. The robbers took three $500 government bills, and from 15 to 20 $100 government bills, a number of $50 and $20 treasury interest paying bills, and $200 or more in silver. A liberal reward is offered for the delivery of the thief.

FROM VERMONT

BURLINGTON, Sept. 7.—Returns come in slow but indicate large Union gains. Smith's majority will come up nearly to 22,000, a gain of 5000 since last year. Mr. Woodbidge, Merrill and Baxter are all elected. The House will not contain over 20 Democrats.

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and unbiased portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption in the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a specialty in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Ira Wilt Davis, jr. job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E. Ellis Doty, job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E. L. Buckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

General Halbert E. Paine.

The Union Convention at Racine yesterday selected the gentleman whose name heads this article to be the standard bearer of the loyal party of the first Congressional district of Wisconsin, at the ensuing election. From our personal knowledge of the man, as well as the faith we had in the ability and wisdom of the convention, we feel quite certain that it has selected the candidate will who be the most acceptable to the people, notwithsnanding there were other gentlemen named for the position whose nomination and election would have reflected credit upon any constituency.

The General was one of the first to enter the service of the country at the breaking out of this rebellion, and participated in the bloody capture of Port Hudson, where he lost a leg. He has recently been placed in command of the Department of Illinois, with headquarters at Springfield. He is a cousin of Judge Paine, of the Supreme Court, and was a former law partner of Major General Carl Schurtz. A gentleman whose character is above suspicion or reproach—whose ability is conceded and acknowledged by all, and whose devotion to his country cannot be questioned, is a proper man, it seems to us, to represent the First district of Wisconsin upon the floor of Congress.

The Chicago Convention in Washington

A Washington dispatch of the 1st to the Cincinnati Commercial says the nominations of the Copperhead Convention at Chicago, and the platform there adopted, have created a profound impression. It is the fall campaign of Jeff Davis commenced at Chicago. The platform is looked upon as demanding that the armies of Grant and Sherman shall ground arms, and the men surrender as prisoners of war to Hood and Lee, and that the heroic Farragut shall withdraw from Mobile Bay and give up Fort Morgan. McClellan is regarded as the tool of the worst traitors in the country, and Pendleton as notoriously disloyal as Vallandigham. The curtain is lifted and copperhead projects are now revealed in all their horrid proportions; loyal men see the gulf before them and will rally as one man to save the country from the machinations of the Jeff. Davis crew at Chicago. In the face of the results of their Convention, all divisions and bickering among men will cease now. Well-informed men in Washington do not doubt the triumph of our armies in the field or of the Union cause at home. Grant will not only hold the Weldon railroad, but soon strike other effectual blows at the rebels.

FILLING QUOTAS DOWN EAST—THE DRAFT.—Gov. Morgan, of New York, and Gov. Morill, of Maine, who have been traversing New England to observe the progress of recruiting under the new call, the Tribune says, report three and they hope four of the Eastern States will have their quotas filled before the approaching 5th, when the deficiencies will be made up by draft. New England will have at least four-fifths of her entire quota ready by that day. The governors report the people earnest and invicible in their resolve to stand by the Government in this hour of her trial. The Tribune adds:

"Information that reaches us from various quarters justifies our conviction that, in addition to credits for men previously furnished, at least two-thirds, and probably three-fourths, of the Half Million called for will have already passed muster, or be ready for muster, on the morning of Sept. 5th, and that one half of the country will thus be out of the draft by reason of having filled their quotas by townships, wards, cities, counties and States."

THE MOBILE markets are beyond the means of poor people. The latest quotations are; Flour, $300 per barrel, and holders unwilling to sell at that moderate price; corn, $100 per bushel; corn meal, $5 per pound; fresh meat, $2,50 per pound; clear sides, $4 per pound; men's common shoes, $150 per pair; women's common shoes, $130 per pair; coffee, $18 to $20 per pound; sugar, $6 per pound. All other articles proportionately high.

A NIECE of John Tyler lately married a Union soldier named Kick. There are other female rebels willing to put up with similar Kicks.

FLOUR is two hundred and fifty dollars a barrel in Richmond, and cotton eight dollars per yard.

Letter from Rodman, N. Y.—Its natural Curiosities.

RODMAN JEFFERSON CO. N. Y. Sept. 2, 1864.

Editors Gazette.—I set me down to write "on" Topics. 1st Rodman is a small town in the county of Jefferson and State of New York, and from Uncle Sam (our host's name) I learn the following facts. This town was first settled in 1801; in 1816 a mail route was established and N. Strong was appointed Post Master. Rodman village, in the valley north of Sandy Creek, five miles above Adams, is built mostly on the south bank and boasts of two taverns, a Methodist and a Congregational church, a Seminary and some fifty dwellings, with the usual variety of Mechanic's shops. During a considerable part of the year it has hydraulic power for mills, but in the summer months this is to some extent supplied by steam. In company with W. C. Mendanhall of Janesville, we took a stroll up the Gulf Stream. It has a very sublime look. The stream is narrow, and in many places one can almost step across it. It has a rocky bottom, and the high walls on either side have the appearance of mason work. The water has worn the rocky bottom curiously. In one place we found a rock that resembled a lizard, and there were indentations the shape of a fish, and in fact almost every thing the human mind has any conception of. Still farther up the stream is a round basin about six feet across and as many deep, called the Devil's Wash-bowl. There is a cave in the eastern bank, into which a young man crawled some two rods taking with him a round stone. He then set the stone in motion and could hear it rumbling for some distance, until, all at once, it dropped and soon he heard it strike in the water below. It is the opinion of the best Geologists that there must be another stream flowing in an opposite direction. We then made a visit to Mount Rodman, just to the north of Rodman village, and after a deal of perseverance and hard climbing we reached the top, and looked down on the moving world below us. Everything looked small; the churches looked no larger than a small dwelling, and at its foot rushed the waters of Sandy Creek; so high were we that had not our hearing been acute, we could scarcely have heard its rumblings at all.

From this small mountain, for it is small when compared with visions of Ætna, we had a splendid view of the country around us, and to a boy who had always lived in the Badger State the view was almost sublime. This country does not look like that which surrounds Janesville, but they call it good here. Zoar a hamleton Sandy Creek one mile above Rodman where there is a Baptist Church one store a few shops and about twenty dwellings, was almost in sight.

People tell us that the drouth and grasshopper (not chinch bug) have very much impaired the crops. Wheat will not be one fourth a crop, grain of all kinds is very light; wheat was selling for $3,25 per bushel, and I have not heard of but two bags being sold at that rate.

Politics here, are mixed; a Lincoln man in the morning, a McClellan man at noon and a Know Nothing at night.

Yours Truly,
OGDEN

THE POLITICAL CANVASS.—The Union Congressional Committee will immediately issue the following documents for distribution among the people:

First, McClellan's Military Career, reviewed and exposed.

Second, George H. Pendleton, his disloyal record and antecedents.

Third, The Chicago Copperhead Convention.—The men who composed it.

Fourth. Base surrender of the Copperheads to the Rebels in arms.

Fifth, The military situation and the glorious achievements of our soldiers and sailors.

Sixth, A few plain words with the heroic private soldiers.

Seventh. The history of McClellan—"Arbitrary arrest" of the Maryland Legislature.

Eight, What Lincoln's Administration has done.

These documents will be printed in English and German and sent for two dollars per hundred copies. Let the loyal men everywhere send in their orders to Hon. James Harlan, Washington, D. C.

THE Boston Transcript says, truly and forcibly, that "of all the senseless gabble the world has ever been afflicted with, the resolutions and harrangues of the Copperheads about free speech and a free press are the most ridiculous. The very parties who are charging upon the Federal Government all manner of tyranny, despotism and usurpation, are, in their daily utterance of disloyal sentiments, and their daily endeavors to embarrass every measure for the defence of the nation against armed rebellion, monuments of the leniency and toleration of authorities they studiously misrepresent and malign.

A LETTER from Memphis states that General Forrest has sent in word to Gen. Washburne that he regretted taking his clothes without his being in them; that if he would send him gray cloth enough for a suit, he would return the General's wardrobe. The General replied that, if he would return his clothes, he would do so, if Gen. Forrest would designate some safe place where the cloth could be deposited. Gen. Washburne's watch was also stolen from under his pillow, but the thieving rebel lost it opposite headquarters, and an orderly found it. The General now looks upon his watch as a trophy.

Muller, the unhappy wretch, had scarcely set his foot ashore ere he had his likeness taken by three or four photographers, and the special artists of as many pictorial weeklies!

THE Peace-sneaks denounce Lincoln as a despot, and declare that he destroyed "liberty of speech," and yet in all their speeches and resolutions they exhaust the resources of the English language in slandering him and other friends of the Union; and nobody interferes with them. What more freedom of speech can they desire?

The Capture of Atlanta.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 5.

We left Jonesboro, 22 miles beyond Atlanta, about 10 o'clock on the morning of the 2d, and traveled under the protection of a cavalry escort via Atlanta. Hood's army was then in retreat, with Sherman fiercely hanging on his rear. The head of his column was skirmishing with the rebels near Fayetteville, some six miles from Jonesboro. The fighting around Jonesboro has been very severe, and the enemy has been routed at all points. On the 30th ult., the 4th and 23d corps struck the main line some five miles beyond East Point Junction. Meantime the Army of the Tennessee and Kilpatrick's cavalry were skirmishing with the enemy on our right drawing them across the Flint river towards Jonesboro. Hasen's 15th corps took possession of a prominent hill which was the key to the enemy's position. The other division formed on the right and left. The 16th corps, somewhat retarded, formed on the extreme right with the 17th on Lyon's left. The 14th and 23d corps forming a connecting line, extending beyond the railroad on the left. The 11th corps spent the night intrenching, and next day before the right and left flanks had taken up their advanced position, the enemy burst in masses on the 15th corps, and were steadily and resolutely met. Their repeated assaults were repulsed, they losing several general officers, including Major General Anderson, mortally wounded, Colonel Williams and Major Barton killed and five Colonels, Majors, &c., wounded or taken prisoners, besides near 1,000 rank and file killed, wounded and captured. Our loss is slight as we fought inside our works. The brunt of the fight fell on Harrison's division, which captured two trains next morning; 1st September, the 14th corps marched along the Macon line, destroying the track for several miles, and about 4 o'clock took up position on the left of the 12th corps, which had now formed in line of battle. The enemy had intrenched themselves in front. The 14th corps was ordered to assault and carry it. The infantry steadily advanced under a surging fire of musketry and artillery, and after a most desperate conflict of some two hours duration, succeeded in driving the enemy from their works, capturing two batteries, one Loomis battery—taken from us at Chickamauga, five guns—and another of four guns, several battle flags and a large number of prisoners; also took Gen. Given and his brigade. Gen. Cummings, of L. P. Lee's corps, was mortally wounded. It is said an Arkansas brigade was captured with Given. This swells our list of prisoners to near 2,000. While the 14th corps was thus nobly engaged, the Army of the Tennessee and the 4th corps were vigorously pressing the enemy on the right and left with cavalry. In the night Lee's corps moved noiselessly away, with the intention of forming a junction with Stewart's corps, which had remained in Atlanta, besides 6,000 militia Hood had stationed in Atlanta to watch Sherman's movements, which seemed to confound him.

The command in the field, therefore, devolved on Hardee, who retreated along the Macon Railroad. Hood finding his situation desperate in Atlanta, also retreated, first burning up nearly one thousand bales of cotton and 86 wagons laden with ammunition, chiefly cartridges and cannister.

At the break of day, when Sherman found the enemy had retreated, he put his whole army in motion and followed in hot pursuit, his object being to get between Hood and Hardee and thus cut off either party. Though he may not succeed in that, as they had all night the start, he will certainly harrass their rear, cutting off and capturing large numbers.

The defeat has a most paralysing effect on Hood's army, for soldiers and militia are breaking for home on all sides.

We heard the roar of exploding ammunition in Atlanta, at Jonesboro.

Gen. Slocum who was guarding our communication and trains along the Chattahoochee, sent forth a detachment from Wood's, George's and Williams' divisions in a reconnoissance. These advanced to the city, which they found evacuated, and entered it about eleven o'clock on the morning of the 2d of September, and they were at once met by a deputation, comprising Major Huge Sheneff and some citizens, who made a formal surrender of the town to Gen. Wood, simply making the following request:

CAPITULATION OF ATLANTA, SEPT. 2, 1864.

To Brig. Gen. Wood, 3d Division, 20th Army Corps.

SIR:—The fortunes of war have placed the city of Atlanta in your hands. As Mayor of the city, I ask protection for non combatants and private property.

(Signed,) JAS. M. CALHOUN,
Mayor of Atlanta,

Attest. Wm. Scott.

To Capt. and A. D. C., A. M. Tebbitts; Capt. and A. D. C., S. R. Shimpson; Lieut. and Provost Marshal.

The above and Col. Coburn commanding the 2d brigade, 3d division, were the first officers to enter the city. The required protection was freely granted, at the same time a detatchment from Miller's division, the 11th Pennsylvania and 13th New York, of Gen. Geary's division, which had entered the town simultaneously with Woods, hoisted the stars and stripes from the Court House, amidst a peal of cheers. "Yankee Doodle followed, and thus was consummated the fall of Atlanta, the backbone of the rebellion in the Southwest.

Gen. Stoneman arrived soon after and took formal possession of the town, some property, four engines and 11 pieces of artillery, chiefly sixty four pounders, which the rebels had to abandon.

The town is much damaged. Most of the inhabitants have left.

We have files of rebel papers, from which it is evident Hood was completely ignorant of the drift of Sherman's movements. Sherman's movements were made with his whole army, with fifteen day's supplies, except the 12th Corps, which had fallen back in the rear compactly, on a parallel road, and passing around the left flank of the enemy crossing the Montgomery line and flanking Jonesboro. The road is good, weather favorable and everything combining to facilitate our success.

CHAMBERSBURG RISING FROM ITS ASHES.—We see by the Franklin Repository that the people of Chambersburg are preparing to rebuild their destroyed dwellings, though they can never replace their old homes. Since the work of making the town is to be done all over again, it is proposed to beautify it by increasing the width of its streets, making the houses neat and uniform, and lining the streets with shade trees. The project requires money, but we presume that necessary, the people consider they can obtain, or they would not discuss anything which could not be performed without it. The appropriation made for their benefit by the Legislature, though apparently large, amounts, it seems, to but $33 per head. They will, therefore, receive no aid from that quarter: All the property destroyed is loss, dead loss, as it was not insured against war risks.

THE rebels claim to have gleaned over two million dollars worth of small arms equipments, lead, etc., from the battlefields of the Wilderness at Spottsylvania. The Richmond Dispatch enumerates among the spoils 30,000 small arms and 25,000 pounds of lead.

Advice Gratis.

We are not of General McClellan's advisers, but if we were, we believe we could give him to-day some sound counsel, for which if he should act upon it, he would be grateful to us hereafter. He has been nominated to the Presidency by a very handsome majority in the Chicago Convention. Such a nomination is no doubt flattering to his feelings; but if we were in his councils we should urge him to decline the profferred honor. We should advise him to say to the Chicago Convention: "You have mistaken your man, gentlemen; you have not judged me rightly, or as I would like to be judged by my fellow-citizens, if you believe I can stand upon the platform which you have adopted, or support the resolutions which you have passed. You have forgotten—what I shall not forget—that, however I may have disagreed with the present administration, I am yet a soldier of the Union; a man bound by gratitude for the education it gave me, by long service under its flag, as well as by the commoner ties of the citizen, to guard with especial and jealous care the honor of the nation, the flag, and the army. Whatever a civilian might think himself justified in doing, a soldier cannot with honor subscribe to the unpatriotic propositions which form your platform; I could not look my comrades in the face, were I to support resolutions which cry out with mercy to the enemy whom they are confronting; which declare in almost every sentence the superior might and power of the enemies of the Union; which contain not a single expression condemnatory of that cruel foe who has not only slain them on the field, but starved them in his prisons, and cruelly abused them whenever they fell into his power."

Such are some of the words in which General McClellan might fitly, as we think, reprove the men whose nomination of him yesterday is, under the circumstances, no compliment. And he might continue: "It is not for a soldier to advise submission to the enemies of his country—to be the leader in entreating a proud a defiant foe for cessation of hostilities: to encourage that foe by making a poor face about the country's condition. It is not fit that I, a soldier of the Union, should trifle with the honor of my country, or with the just pride of my countrymen. For me the only platform in the present situation of our country is that upon which every soldier and every faithful lover of the Union can and ought to stand: 'No parley while the rebel flag floats within our limits; no cessation of hostilities while an armed foe threatens the Union or insults our flag.' That is the platform upon which, I believe, Gen Jackson would stand were he living to-day; there, too, General Washington would have stood; there I stand, and mean to remain."

We have not believed General McClellan to be a profound statesman, or even a really shrewd and far-sighted politician. But if he should happen to make some such reply as this to the people who nominated him yesterday at Chicago, we should begin to think him both statesman and politician. For by that stroke he would at once confute all who have suspected his loyalty and his correct judgement: and gather about him an overwhelming majority of the American people, who desire peace, but only on terms just and honorable to the nation, and who scorn and hate the snivelling intriguers who ruled at Chicago. He might make himself the head, not of a faction but of a party; and not merely of a party, but of the best and largest part of the American people.

On the other hand, if, as we suppose, and as, indeed his friends and supporters apparently do not doubt, he accepts the nomination and supports the resolutions of the Chicago Convention, he at once affirms and confesses the justice of all the suspicions which have been entertained concerning the sincerity of his devotions to the Union; he condemns himself to certain defeat, and, as we believe, to an evil name in our history, for he becomes thereby the servile tool of unscrupulous demagogues, and binds himself to a policy which the American people abhor.—New York Post.

People's Edition of Parton's

Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

One Volume, Octavo, Paper, Price 75c.

With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.

It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; the real plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via. Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortress Monroe; the history of the contrabands; his advise to the Administration how to take Richmond; the truth about the battle of Great Bethel; the Hatteras Expedition; the secret history of the New Orleans Expedition; the adventures of the General in getting to Ship Island; a full account of the capture of New Orleans; the landing of the troops in the city; a complete narrative of succeeding events, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never before published; the recall of Gen. Butler, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his present opinions upon the great issues before us.

Edition in large type, crown, 8vo., cloth, 662 pages, price $2.50. People's Edition, 8vo., paper, 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price

Spring Steel Drill-Eyed

NEEDLES!!

TO THE LADIES.

We most respectfully solicit your kind attention for a moment to a matter which, though apparently trifling, is nevertheless of considerable importance to your convenience, patience and comfort. Every lady, no matter what her position in society, whether it be one of ease and influence, or one of toil and poverty, has occasion almost daily to ply the busy needle; how and where to procure needles of perfect quality, is, therefore, a question of some interest to you all. The Needles known as "R. J. Roberts" are of this description. They are made of

Extra Refined Swedish Steel,

are tempered by a new and improved process, which render them uniform, smooth, bright, strong and pliable; their eyes are drilled and silver burnished; their points are hard, sharp and gently tapering. In addition to these advantages, they are put up in which renders them much more convenient. In nearly all the large cities of Europe and America their sale is extensive, and their reputation unequaled. They will not easily break nor bend; they will not elude the thread; they will not turn up nor break off at the points. Each of them is warranted to sew along white, easily and well.

PATENT WRAPPERS,

General Halbert E. Paine.

The Union Convention at Racine yesterday selected the gentleman whose name heads this article to be the standard bearer of the loyal party of the first Congressional district of Wisconsin, at the ensuing election. From our personal knowledge of the man, as well as the faith we had in the ability and wisdom of the convention, we feel quite certain that it has selected the candidate will who be the most acceptable to the people, notwithsnanding there were other gentlemen named for the position whose nomination and election would have reflected credit upon any constituency.

The General was one of the first to enter the service of the country at the breaking out of this rebellion, and participated in the bloody capture of Port Hudson, where he lost a leg. He has recently been placed in command of the Department of Illinois, with headquarters at Springfield. He is a cousin of Judge Paine, of the Supreme Court, and was a former law partner of Major General Carl Schurtz. A gentleman whose character is above suspicion or reproach—whose ability is conceded and acknowledged by all, and whose devotion to his country cannot be questioned, is a proper man, it seems to us, to represent the First district of Wisconsin upon the floor of Congress.

The Chicago Convention in Washington

A Washington dispatch of the 1st to the Cincinnati Commercial says the nominations of the Copperhead Convention at Chicago, and the platform there adopted, have created a profound impression. It is the fall campaign of Jeff Davis commenced at Chicago. The platform is looked upon as demanding that the armies of Grant and Sherman shall ground arms, and the men surrender as prisoners of war to Hood and Lee; and that the heroic Farragut shall withdraw from Mobile Bay and give up Fort Morgan. McClellan is regarded as the tool of the worst traitors in the country, and Pendleton as notoriously disloyal as Vallandigham. The curtain is lifted and copperhead projects are now revealed in all their horrid proportions; loyal men see the gulf before them and will rally as one man to save the country from the machinations of the Jeff. Davis crew at Chicago. In the face of the results of their Convention, all divisions and bickering among men will cease now. Well-informed men in Washington do not doubt the triumph of our armies in the field or of the Union cause at home. Grant will not only hold the Weldon railroad, but soon strike other effectual blows at the rebels.

FILLING QUOTAS DOWN EAST—THE DRAFT.—Gov. Morgan, of New York, and Gov. Morill, of Maine, who have been traversing New England to observe the progress of recruiting under the new call, the Tribune says, report three and they hope four of the Eastern States will have their quotas filled before the approaching 5th, when the deficiencies will be made up by draft. New England will have at least four-fifths of her entire quota ready by that day. The governors report the people earnest and invicible in their resolve to stand by the Government in this hour of her trial. The Tribune adds:

"Information that reaches us from various quarters justifies our conviction that, in addition to credits for men previously furnished, at least two-thirds, and probably three-fourths, of the Half Million called for will have already passed muster, or be ready for muster, on the morning of Sept. 5th, and that one-half of the country will thus be out of the draft by reason of having filled their quotas by townships, wards, cities, counties and States."

THE MOBILE markets are beyond the means of poor people. The latest quotations are; Flour, $300 per barrel, and holders unwilling to sell at that moderate price; corn, $100 per bushel; corn meal, $6 per pound; fresh meat, $2,50 per pound; clear sides, $4 per pound; men's common shoes, $150 per pair; women's common shoes, $130 per pair; coffee, $18 to $20 per pound; sugar, $6 per pound. All other articles proportionately high.

A NIECE of John Tyler lately married a Union soldier named Kick. There are other female rebels willing to put up with similar Kicks.

FLOUR is two hundred and fifty dollars a barrel in Richmond, and cotton eight dollars per yard.

Letter from Rodman, N. Y.—Its natural Curiosities.

RODMAN JEFFERSON CO. N. Y. Sept. 2, 1864.

Editors Gazette.—I set me down to write "on" Topics. 1st Rodman is a small town in the county of Jefferson and State of New York, and from Uncle Sam (our host's name) I learn the following facts. This town was first settled in 1801; in 1816 a mail route was established and N. Strong was appointed Post Master. Rodman village, in the valley north of Sandy Creek, five miles above Adams, is built mostly on the south bank and boasts of two taverns, a Methodist and a Congregational church, a Seminary and some fifty dwellings, with the usual variety of Mechanic's shops. During a considerable part of the year it has hydraulic power for mills, but in the summer months this is to some extent supplied by steam. In company with W. C. Mendanhall of Janesville, we took a stroll up the Gulf Stream. It has a very sublime look. The stream is narrow, and in many places one can almost step across it. It has a rocky bottom, and the high walls on either side have the appearance of mason work. The water has worn the rocky bottom curiously. In one place we found a rock that resembled a lizard, and there were indentations the shape of a fish, and in fact almost every thing the human mind has any conception of. Still farther up the stream is a round basin about six feet across and as many deep, called the Devil's Wash-bowl. There is a cave in the eastern bank, into which a young man crawled some two rods taking with him a round stone. He then set the stone in motion and could hear it rumbling for some distance, until, all at once, it dropped and soon he heard it strike in the water below. It is the opinion of the best Geologists that there must be another stream flowing in an opposite direction. We then made a visit to Mount Rodman, just to the north of Rodman village, and after a deal of perseverance and hard climbing we reached the top, and looked down on the moving world below us. Everything looked small; the churches looked no larger than a small dwelling, and at its foot rushed the waters of Sandy Creek; so high were we that had not our hearing been acute, we could scarcely have heard its rumblings at all.

From this small mountain, for it is small when compared with visions of Ætna, we had a splendid view of the country around us, and to a boy who had always lived in the Badger State the view was almost sublime. This country does not look like that which surrounds Janesville, but they call it good here. Zoar a hamlet on Sandy Creek one mile above Rodman where there is a Baptist Church one store a few shops and about twenty dwellings, was almost in sight.

People tell us that the drouth and grasshopper (not chinch bug) have very much impaired the crops. Wheat will not be one fourth a crop, grain of all kinds is very light; wheat was selling for $3.25 per bushel, and I have not heard of but two bags being sold at that rate.

Politics here, are mixed; a Lincoln man in the morning, a McClellan man at noon and a Know Nothing at night.

Yours Truly,
OGDEN

THE POLITICAL CANVASS.—The Union Congressional Committee will immediately issue the following documents for distribution among the people:

First, McClellan's Military Career, reviewed and exposed.

Second, George H. Pendleton, his disloyal record and antecedents.

Third, The Chicago Copperhead Convention.—The men who composed it.

Fourth. Base surrender of the Copperheads to the Rebels in arms.

Fifth, The military situation and the glorious achievements of our soldiers and sailors.

Sixth, A few plain words with the heroic private soldiers.

Seventh. The history of McClellan—"Arbitary arrest" of the Maryland Legislature.

Eight, What Lincoln's Administration has done.

These documents will be printed in English and German and sent for two dollars per hundred copies. Let the loyal men everywhere send in their orders to Hon. James Harlan, Washington, D. C.

THE Boston Transcript says, truly and forcibly, that "of all the senseless gabble the world has ever been afflicted with, the resolutions and harrangues of the Copperheads about free speech and a free press are the most ridiculous. The very parties who are charging upon the Federal Government all manner of tyranny, despotism and usurpation, are, in their daily utterance of disloyal sentiments, and their daily endeavors to embarrass every measure for the defence of the nation against armed rebellion, monuments of the leniency and toleration of authorities they studiously misrepresent and malign.

A LETTER from Memphis states that General Forrest has sent in word to Gen. Washburne that he regretted taking his clothes without his being in them; that if he would send him gray cloth enough for a suit, he would return the General's wardrobe. The General replied that, if he would return his clothes, he would do so, if Gen. Forrest would designate some safe place where the cloth could be deposited. Gen. Washburne's watch was also stolen from under his pillow, but the thieving rebel lost it opposite headquarters, and an orderly found it. The General now looks upon his watch as a trophy.

Muller, the unhappy wretch, had scarcely set his foot ashore ere he had his likeness taken by three or four photographers, and the special artists of as many pictorial weeklies!

THE Peace-sneaks denounce Lincoln as a despot, and declare that he destroyed "liberty of speech," and yet in all their speeches and resolutions they exhaust the resources of the English language in slandering him and other friends of the Union; and nobody interferes with them. What more freedom of speech can they desire?

The Capture of Atlanta.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 5.

We left Jonesboro, 22 miles beyond Atlanta, about 10 o'clock on the morning of the 2d, and traveled under the protection of a cavalry escort via Atlanta. Hood's army was then in retreat, with Sherman fiercely hanging on his rear. The head of his column was skirmishing with the rebels near Fayetteville, some six miles from Jonesboro. The fighting around Jonesboro has been very severe, and the enemy has been routed at all points. On the 30th ult., the 4th and 23d corps struck the main line some five miles beyond East Point Junction. Meantime the Army of the Tennessee and Kilpatrick's cavalry were skirmishing with the enemy on our right drawing them across the Flint river towards Jonesboro. Hasen's 15th corps took possession of a prominent hill which was the key to the enemy's position. The other division formed on the right and left. The 16th corps, somewhat retarded, formed on the extreme right with the 17th on Lyon's left. The 14th and 23d corps forming a connecting line, extending beyond the railroad on the left. The 14th corps spent the night intrenching, and next day before the right and left flanks had taken up their advanced position, the enemy burst in masses on the 15th corps, and were steadily and resolutely met. Their repeated assaults were repulsed, they losing several general officers, including Major General Anderson, mortally wounded, Colonel Williams and Major Barton killed and five Colonels, Majors, &c., wounded or taken prisoners, besides near 1,000 rank and file killed, wounded and captured. Our loss is slight as we fought inside our works. The brunt of the fight fell on Harrison's division, which captured two trains next morning; 1st September, the 14th corps marched along the Macon line, destroying the track for several miles, and about 4 o'clock took up position on the left of the 12th corps, which had now formed in line of battle. The enemy had intrenched themselves in front. The 14th corps was ordered to assault and carry it. The infantry steadily advanced under a surging fire of musketry and artillery, and after a most desperate conflict of some two hours duration, succeeded in driving the enemy from their works, capturing two batteries, one Loomis battery—taken from us at Chickamauga, five guns—and another of four guns, several battle flags and a large number of prisoners; also took Gen. Given and his brigade. Gen. Cummings, of L. P. Lee's corps, was mortally wounded. It is said an Arkansas brigade was captured with Given. This swells our list of prisoners to near 2,000. While the 14th corps was thus nobly engaged, the Army of the Tennessee and the 4th corps were vigorously pressing the enemy on the right and left with cavalry. In the night Lee's corps moved noiselessly away, with the intention of forming a junction with Stewart's corps, which had remained in Atlanta, besides 6,000 militia Hood had stationed in Atlanta to watch Sherman's movements, which seemed to confound him.

The command in the field, therefore, devolved on Hardee, who retreated along the Macon Railroad. Hood finding his situation desperate in Atlanta, also retreated, first burning up nearly one thousand bales of cotton and 86 wagons laden with ammunition, chiefly cartridges and cannister.

At the break of day, when Sherman found the enemy had retreated, he put his whole army in motion and followed in hot pursuit, his object being to get between Hood and Hardee and thus cut off either party. Though he may not succeed in that, as they had all night the start, he will certainly harrass their rear, cutting off and capturing large numbers.

The defeat has a most paralysing effect on Hood's army, for soldiers and militia are breaking for home on all sides.

We heard the roar of exploding ammunition in Atlanta, at Jonesboro.

Gen. Slocum who was guarding our communication and trains along the Chattahoochee, sent forth a detachment from Wood's, George's and Williams' divisions in a reconnoissance. These advanced to the city, which they found evacuated, and entered it about eleven o'clock on the morning of the 2d of September, and they were at once met by a deputation, comprising Major Huge Sheneff and some citizens, who made a formal surrender of the town to Gen. Wood, simply making the following request:

CAPITULATION OF ATLANTA, SEPT. 2, 1864.

To Brig. Gen. Wood, 3d Division, 20th Army Corps.

SIR:—The fortunes of war have placed the city of Atlanta in your hands. As Mayor of the city, I ask protection for non combatants and private property.

(Signed,) JAS. M. CALHOUN,
Mayor of Atlanta,

Attest. Wm. Scott.

To Capt. and A. D. C., A. M. Tebbitts; Capt. and A. D. C., S. R. Shimpson; Lieut. and Provost Marshal.

The above and Col. Coburn commanding the 2d brigade, 3d division, were the first officers to enter the city. The required protection was freely granted, at the same time a detatchment from Miller's division, the 11th Pennsylvania and 13th New York, of Gen. Geary's division, which had entered the town simultaneously with Woods, hoisted the stars and stripes from the Court House, amidst a peal of cheers. "Yankee Doodle followed, and thus was consummated the fall of Atlanta, the backbone of the rebellion in the Southwest.

Gen. Stoneman arrived soon after and took formal possession of the town, some property, four engines and 11 pieces of artillery, chiefly sixty four pounders, which the rebels had to abandon.

The town is much damaged. Most of the inhabitants have left.

We have files of rebel papers, from which it is evident Hood was completely ignorant of the drift of Sherman's movements. Sherman's movements were made with his whole army, with fifteen day's supplies, except the 12th Corps, which had fallen back in the rear compactly, on a parallel road, and passing around the left flank of the enemy crossing the Montgomery line and flanking Jonesboro. The road is good, weather favorable and everything combining to facilitate our success.

CHAMBERSBURG RISING FROM ITS ASHES.—We see by the Franklin Repository that the people of Chambersburg are preparing to rebuild their destroyed dwellings, though they can never replace their old homes. Since the work of making the town is to be done all over again, it is proposed to beautify it by increasing the width of its streets, making the houses neat and uniform, and lining the streets with shade trees. The project requires money, but we presume that necessary, the people consider they can obtain, or they would not discuss anything which could not be performed without it. The appropriation made for their benefit by the Legislature, though apparently large, amounts, it seems, to but $33 per head. They will, therefore, receive no aid from that quarter: All the property destroyed is loss, dead loss, as it was not insured against war risks.

THE rebels claim to have gleaned over two million dollars worth of small arms equipments, lead, etc., from the battlefields of the Wilderness at Spottsylvania. The Richmond Dispatch enumerates among the spoils 30,000 small arms and 25,000 pounds of lead.

Advice Gratis.

We are not of General McClellan's advisers, but if we were, we believe we could give him to-day some sound counsel, for which if he should act upon it, he would be grateful to us hereafter. He has been nominated to the Presidency by a very handsome majority in the Chicago Convention. Such a nomination is no doubt flattering to his feelings; but if we were in his councils we should urge him to decline the profferred honor. We should advise him to say to the Chicago Convention: "You have mistaken your man, gentlemen; you have not judged me rightly, or as I would like to be judged by my fellow-citizens, if you believe I can stand upon the platform which you have adopted, or support the resolutions which you have passed. You have forgotten—what I shall not forget—that, however I may have disagreed with the present administration, I am yet a soldier of the Union; a man bound by gratitude for the education it gave me, by long service under its flag, as well as by the commoner ties of the citizen, to guard with especial and jealous care the honor of the nation, the flag, and the army. Whatever a civilian might think himself justified in doing, a soldier cannot with honor subscribe to the unpatriotic propositions which form your platform; I could not look my comrades in the face, were I to support resolutions which cry out with mercy to the enemy whom they are confronting; which declare in almost every sentence the superior might and power of the enemies of the Union; which contain not a single expression condemnatory of that cruel foe who has not only slain them on the field, but starved them in his prisons, and crually abused them whenever they fell into his power."

Such are some of the words in which General McClellan might fitly, as we think, reprove the men whose nomination of him yesterday is, under the circumstances, no compliment. And he might continue: "It is not for a soldier to advise submission to the enemies of his country—to be the leader in entreating a proud a defiant foe for cessation of hostilities: to encourage that foe by making a poor face about the country's condition. It is not fit that I, a soldier of the Union, should trifle with the honor of my country, or with the just pride of my countrymen. For me the only platform in the present situation of our country is that upon which every soldier and every faithful lover of the Union can and ought to stand: 'No parley while the rebel flag floats within our limits; no cessation of hostilities while an armed foe threatens the Union or insults our flag.' That is the platform upon which, I believe, Gen Jackson would stand were he living to-day; there, too, General Washington would have stood; there I stand, and mean to remain."

We have not believed General McClellan to be a profound statesman, or even a really shrewd and far-sighted politician. But if he should happen to make some such reply as this to the people who nominated him yesterday at Chicago, we should begin to think him both statesman and politician. For by that stroke he would at once confute all who have suspected his loyalty and his correct judgement: and gather about him an overwhelming majority of the American people, who desire peace, but only on terms just and honorable to the nation, and who scorn and hate the snivelling intriguers who ruled at Chicago. He might make himself the head, not of a faction but of a party; and not merely of a party, but of the best and largest part of the American people.

On the other hand, if, as we suppose, and as, indeed his friends and supporters apparently do not doubt, he accepts the nomination and supports the resolutions of the Chicago Convention, he at once affirms and confesses the justice of all the suspicions which have been entertained concerning the sincerity of his devotions to the Union; he condemns himself to certain defeat, and, as we believe, to an evil name in our history, for he becomes thereby the servile tool of unscrupulous demagogues, and binds himself to a policy which the American people abhor.—New York Post.

Peoples' Edition of Parton's

Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

One Volume, Octavo, Paper, Price 75c.

With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.

It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; the real plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via. Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortress Monroe; the history of the contrabands; his advise to the Administration how to take Richmond; the truth about the battle of Great Bethel; the Hatteras Expedition; the secret history of the New Orleans Expedition; the adventures of the General in getting to Ship Island; a full account of the capture of New Orleans; the landing of the troops in the city; a complete narrative of succeeding events, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never before published; the recall of Gen. Butler, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his present opinions upon the great issues before us.

Edition in large type, crown, 8vo., cloth, 662 pages, price $2.50. People's Edition, 8vo., paper, 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Spring Steel Drill-Eyed

NEEDLES!!

TO THE LADIES.

We most respectfully solicit your kind attention for a moment to a matter which, though apparently trifling, is nevertheless of considerable importance to your convenience, patience and comfort. Every lady, no matter what her position in society, whether it be one of ease and affluence, or one of toil and poverty, has occasion almost daily to ply the busy needle; how and where to procure needles of perfect quality, is, therefore, a question of some interest to you all. The Needles known as "R. J. Roberts" are of this description. They are made of

Extra Refined Swedish Steel,

are tempered by a new and improved process, which renders them uniform, smooth, bright, strong and pliable; their eyes are lubixed and silver burnished; their points are hard, sharp and gently tapering. In addition to these advantages, they are put up in which renders them much more convenient. In nearly all the large cities of Europe and America their sale is extensive, and their reputation unequaled. They will not easily break nor bend; they will not chafe the thread; they will not turn up nor break off at the points. Each of them is warranted to sew a long while, easily and well.

PATENT WRAPPERS,

A SUPERIOR REMEDY.

We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Mellifluous Cough Balsam. It gives relief almost instantaneous, and is withal not disagreeable to the taste. There is no doubt but the Mellifluous Cough Balsam is one of the best preparations now in use, and is all that its proprietor claims for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most distressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. Strickland, No. East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

We have taken the agency of the above named Insurance Company for Rock county, and intend either personally or by substitutes to canvass the whole county soliciting business in its behalf. It is a stock company, and stands among the heaviest and most reliable institutions in New York. Dividing 75 per cent. of its net profits among its participating policy holders, makes it one of the most desirable companies in which to insure. Risks taken on merchandise, buildings, and all homestead property at the customary rates. J. S. CHAPIN.

MADISON MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

A Statement of the business of the Company for the six months ending June 30, 1864:

Number of policies issued	6,618
Amount of risks thereon	$6,458,118 33
Premium notes thereon	88,784 17
Cash premiums thereon	69,150 20
Losses adjusted and paid	13,179 13

Statement of the business of the Company for the corresponding term of the last four years:

	Policies issued.	Premium notes	Cash Premiums.
1860 to June 30	1,763	$30,558 43	$16,008 32
1861 to June 30	2,960	51,479 44	26,094 61
1862 to July 21	4,702	63,670 30	38,593 05

1864 to June 30	6,618	88,784 17	69,150 30

It is gratifying to the officers, as it must be pleasing to the members, to exhibit the foregoing evidence of the rapid increase of business and the present condition of the Company. The public faith, at first awakened by our able and untiring agents, and confirmed by the unswerving fidelity of the Company to its professions, has matured into a confidence which cannot be shaken by charlatan opponents or jealous rivals.

The citizens of this State have built up a home company which gives them ample protection, and precludes the necessity of sending their money abroad for a security which they give to one another. It needs no brazen trumpet to sound its praise, the hundreds to whom property and home have been restored by its benificence, and its immense and rapidly increasing business, are at once evidence of its guardianship and popularity.

Its best eulogium is its large home endorsement, and where it is most known it is in vain for others to solicit the risks which come within its rules. Its present unimpaired capital is considerably over $500,000, consisting of premium notes and cash assets, and while it combines security and economy in a degree hardly paralleled, it is believed that no mutual fire insurance company in the United States presents as large a capital and a business as great.

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.
Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Witherham, Esq, firm of Witherham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz, that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.
Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq, firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.
Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.
Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.
Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D, Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Yours, with respect, J S HERMAN.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS,

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.

A SUPERIOR REMEDY.

We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Mellifluous Cough Balsam. It gives relief almost instantaneous, and is withal not disagreeable to the taste. There is no doubt but the Mellifluous Cough Balsam is one of the best preparations now in use, and is all that its proprietor claims for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most distressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. Strickland, No. East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months, as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

It is a stock company, and stands among the heaviest and most reliable institutions in New York. Statement of the business of the Company for the corresponding term of the last four years:

It is gratifying to the officers, as it must be pleasing to the members, to exhibit the foregoing evidence of the rapid increase of business and the present condition of the Company. The public faith, at first awakened by our able and untiring agents, and confirmed by the unswerving fidelity of the Company to its professions, has matured into a confidence which cannot be shaken by charlatan opponents or jealous rivals.

The citizens of this State have built up a home company which gives them ample protection, and precludes the necessity of sending their money abroad for a security which they give to one another. It needs no brazen trumpet to sound its praise, the hundreds to whom property and home have been restored by its beneficence, and its immense and rapidly increasing business, are at once evidence of its guardianship and popularity.

Its best eulogium is its large home endorsement, and where it is most known it is in vain for others to solicit the risks which come within its rules. Its present unimpaired capital is considerably over $500,000, consisting of premium notes and cash assets, and while it combines security and economy in a degree hardly paralleled, it is believed that no mutual fire insurance company in the United States presents as large a capital and a business as great.

COTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

READ WHO SAYS SO:

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq., firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.

Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:

PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxbourough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS,

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.

They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.

Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY!

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced diseases.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Patent Medicines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS

Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous dispositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold' Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is

The Great Diuretic,

and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla Syphilis

Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation or Sarsaparilla.

All our plows are constructed of the very best material that can be bought.

Each one is pointed with Cast Steel and hardened, and the workmanship of each part will be thoroughly done.

The finish and polish of every plow is not equalled by any other manufacturer.

We aim to supply the best plow in the market, the most durable, the best made, the best finished, and the best running plow.

Sewing Machines.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Over the Post Office!

There is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch, as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

COMPANY,

Who take pleasure in placing their machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantages of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Patent Medicines.

Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Patent Medicines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES, KNOWN AS

Helmbold's Genuine Preparation

"highly concentrated" compound

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

a positive and specific remedy for diseases of

The Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.

H

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous dispositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Take no Balsam, Mercury or unpleasant medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense; little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is

The Great Diuretic,

and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation or Sarsaparilla.
